July 2012

ELIGIBLE RETIREES MAY USE SICK LEAVE FUNDS TO PAY FOR MEDI-GAP, MED-ADVANTAGE OR PART D PLANS WITH THE FOLLOWING CARRIERS:

The Office of Group Insurance has agreements with Blue Cross of Idaho, Regence BlueShield of Idaho, and AARP/United Health Care which allow State retirees age 65 and over to use their unused sick leave funds to pay premiums for Medi-Gap, Med-Advantage, or Medicare Part D Prescription plans underwritten by any of these three carriers. The Public Employee Retirement System of Idaho (PERSI) will also deduct the premium from your monthly retirement benefit when your Sick Leave funds have been exhausted if you choose a plan through one of these carriers.

If you are interested in reviewing the Medicare supplement plan options available from one of these three carriers, you can contact them during their regular office hours listed below:
